FILE: JEC-AF3

In accordance with § 167.171, RSMo, no student may be readmitted or enrolled in the regular programs of the school who has been convicted of or charged with an act which if committed by an adult would be one of the above. Nothing in the law shall prohibit the readmittance or enrollment of any student if a charge has been dismissed, or when a student has been acquitted of any of the above offenses. This section does not apply to a student with a disability, as identified under state eligibility criteria, who is convicted as a result of an action related to the student's disability.

I attest that all the above information is correct and true:
